

Xavier University Bhubaneswar seeks applicants for faculty positions for the School of Government and Public Affairs (SGPA)

Distinguished by its philosophy of “Inspiring Futures,” Xavier University Bhubaneswar (XUB) which grew out of one of India’s top-ranked business schools, XIMB (Xavier School of Management), has started the School of Government and Public Affairs (SGPA).

The School was inaugurated by the Hon’ble Chief Minister of Odisha on 5th February 2020. The School is poised to become an international public policy institution that will bring global standards of public policy teaching, research and training to India and develop leadership of the future. The flagship offering of the School is the two-year full-time Master in Public Policy (MPP) course that has a concentration in business, drawing upon the intellectual capital of India’s premier Business School, XIMB. The School is also launching its doctoral research program and will host a number of Centers dedicated to themes that require attention in the current global policy space like gender equivalence, climate change, disaster resilience and sustainability.

The SGPA seeks to recruit faculty in public policy with specialization in Public Systems, Public Policy Analysis, Governance, Citizenship Studies, Information Technology and Public Policy, Public Mobilization, Political Science, Economics, Data Sciences, Sociology at the levels of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor. Applicants are expected to have a Ph.D., by the time of joining. Candidates are required to have publications in international conferences and journals of repute. International teaching/working/consulting experience in public policy; and experience in guiding research students would be a distinct advantage.

Applicants with entrepreneurial drive, excellent teaching credentials and entrenched commitment to the public policy universe are encouraged to apply
