Department of English:

The Department of English, under the School of Liberal Arts (SLA) offers a rich academic environment dedicated to the study of literature, language, and critical theory. Students explore the vast expanse of English literature from historical texts to contemporary global narratives, and from foundational linguistic principles to advanced composition and rhetoric. Through rigorous coursework and extracurricular/co-curricular initiatives, the Department is committed to nurturing well-rounded individuals equipped to contribute thoughtfully and effectively to society. Through partnerships with renowned universities worldwide, we offer students opportunities to participate in exchange programs, joint research projects, and international conferences.

X-LIBRIS (Literary club)

X-LIBRIS is the literary club of the Department of English at XIM University, dedicated to fostering a love for literature, language, and creative expression. The club provides students with a platform to explore their literary interests, develop their communication skills, and showcase their talent.

Through various activities such as debates, creative writing, poetry, storytelling, theatre, and literary discussions, X-LIBRIS encourages students to engage with literature beyond the classroom. It also organises literary events and cultural activities that bring together students with diverse interests and talents. X-LIBRIS serves as a space for learning, encouraging students to discover their potential and build meaningful connections through literature and the arts.

LITERARY FEST:

X-Libris, the Literary Club of the Department of English, XIM University, proudly organizes its flagship literary event every year, bringing together literature enthusiasts from our university and various other universities. The event celebrates literature, creativity, and artistic expression through a diverse range of engaging activities, competitions, and performances. It provides students with a vibrant platform to showcase their talents, exchange ideas, and connect with fellow literature lovers. With enthusiastic participation from students across different universities, the event fosters literary appreciation, collaboration, and cultural exchange, making it a much-awaited celebration of the literary arts.

Literary Fest 2026:

XYVARA 2026: Vedic to Mughal — The Art Reimagined is a celebration of India's rich cultural tapestry, tracing the evolution of art, literature, traditions, and creative expression from the Vedic era to the Mughal era.

Encompassing the diverse influences of the Dravidian period and the various dynasties and ruling powers that shaped the subcontinent's history, the theme explores how art has evolved across centuries while retaining its timeless essence. It brings together the essence of India's diverse civilisations, architectural marvels, classical traditions, and artistic legacies.

From ancient scriptures and indigenous art forms to the grandeur of medieval courts, the theme reflects the dynamic interplay of history and imagination. Through XYVARA, the past is not merely remembered but creatively reinterpreted, allowing participants to connect with India's heritage in fresh and meaningful ways. XYVARA invites participants to reimagine this magnificent journey through their own creative perspectives, bringing the colours, stories, and artistic heritage of India's past into the present.
